Staying the Course: James 3:13-18

This Sunday, we continue the message series focused on the Book of James titled "Staying the Course." This week our scripture will be James 3:13-18.

Questions to Dig Deeper:

1. How would you describe the word discernment to someone?
2. Think of a person from your life that you consider to be wise, what makes them wise? What about them do you want to emulate?
3. Socrates: "the only wisdom is in knowing that you know nothing." What does that quote stir up in you?
4. The most dangerous person in the room is the one who think they know everything. What has your experience been working with someone who knows it all about something?
5. The fruit of Godly discernment and wisdom is that it is: pure; peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere. How have you seen discernment lead to this kind of fruit in your life?
6. Mature believers are discerning. How might God be leading you to grow in your own wisdom and discernment as James 3 describes it?
