We Get to Do This

Philippians 1:12-26

Questions to Dig Deeper:

1. Paul was imprisoned for bringing non-Jews into the temple. If Paul was living today, who do you think Paul would be sharing Jesus with, and inviting to church?
2. What places has God given for you to model your faith in Christ in this season of life?
3. Paul doesn't seem too worried about people sharing the gospel from a variety of motives. Who are people/groups/churches/organizations that you wonder about motives? How might God be inviting you like Paul of worrying less about possible motives, and more about the gospel being shared?
4. Whatever happens conduct yourself in a manner worthy of Christ. Whatever happens. What types of circumstances make it easier (and harder) to live that kind of life?
