

Questions to Dig Deeper:

1. When you think about being "ready" what does that look like? How much of your understanding of readiness is based on education and training?

2. We are in an epidemic of loneliness at the moment. Who are two friends that you connect with frequently? Is it hard to think about two friends you can lean on?

3. What places for "harvest" has God already placed you in? Where are relationships and groups that your faith can make an impact?

4. What barriers do you face when walking alongside others? Availability? Finding someone to walk with? Worries around vulnerability? Something else?