Questions to Dig Deeper:

1. What does the act of the priests stepping into the Jordan River before it parted teach us about faith? Can you think of a time you had to take a step of faith before seeing God move?
2. How does this crossing compare to the Red Sea miracle, and why do you think God performed a similar sign for a new generation?
3. What do you think God was teaching the Israelites through this experience at the Jordan River? How does that lesson apply to your life right now?
4. What are some "Jordan Rivers" you face today—challenges where God is asking you to trust Him before you see the outcome?
