Questions to Dig Deeper:

1. How does God's covenant with Abram in Genesis 17 reflect a transformational moment in his spiritual journey as God changes his name?
2. In what ways does the covenant of circumcision represent a deeper inward transformation, not just an outward sign? What spiritual "marks" or disciplines help remind you of your commitment to God?
3. How does the transformation of Sarai to Sarah show that God's plans for growth and fruitfulness extend to all parts of our lives, even those that seem barren or broken?
4. God repeats His promises to Abraham multiple times throughout his journey. Why do you think God reaffirms His covenant in Genesis 17? How has God patiently reaffirmed His presence or promises in your life during seasons of slow growth?
5. How does this chapter challenge our tendency to separate spiritual growth from daily life decisions? What practical habits help you stay connected to God's transforming work throughout the week?
