NEXT STEPS

Abraham: Names, Detours, and Discernment Series: "No Big Deal" Genesis 18:1-15

Questions to Dig Deeper:

1. In what ways do Abraham and Sarah demonstrate hospitality to the three visitors? How might their example challenge how we welcome others into our homes or church?
2. Abraham offers his best resources and time to strangers. What does this reveal about his heart toward others, and how might this reflect God's own generosity?
3. How do you see God's generosity displayed in His message to Abraham and Sarah? What does this tell us about God's character?
4. Why do you think God chose to reveal His promise of a son in the context of a shared meal and hospitality? How might God use ordinary acts of kindness to show His extraordinary blessings today?
5. How can our small acts of hospitality reflect God's much greater generosity toward us, and what practical steps could you take this week to show that kind of welcome to someone?
