Questions to Dig Deeper:

1. Hebrews 10 begins with the assurance that we can approach God with confidence because of Jesus. How does this truth shape the way you pray, confess, or show grace to yourself and others?
2. What does it look like, practically, to “hold unwaveringly” to hope in your current season of life? What are some of the things that most often compete for or distract from that hope?
3. Bill named the temptation to live out a “me and God” faith. Where have you seen the benefits—or the limits—of trying to live your faith in isolation?
4. Proverbs 27:17 and Hebrews 10:24 describe community as something that sharpens us. Can you share an example of someone who has encouraged, challenged, or “poked” you in a way that helped your faith grow?
5. Looking ahead, what is one concrete way God may be inviting you to lean more intentionally into Christian community—either by showing up more fully or by encouraging someone else?
